

Stronger Together. Safer Together. JOIN ASHCA TODAY!

Agricultural Safety and Health Council of America: A national coalition working to make agricultural workplaces safer, healthier and more sustainable.

Who is ASHCA?

The Agricultural Safety & Health Council of America (ASHCA) is a non-profit organization established in 2007, to pursue national strategies to create a less hazardous work environment for American agriculture.

Our Mission

Our mission is to proactively address ongoing and emerging occupational safety and health issues affecting U.S. agriculture.

The Value of ASHCA Membership

A CONNECTED SAFETY NETWORK

- Brings together farms, ranches, producers, agri-businesses, non-profits, government agencies, academia and universities.
- Creates a shared platform for collaboration across the agricultural industry.

A ONE-STOP SAFETY RESOURCE

- Continuously updated access to critical agricultural safety and health information.
- Practical information designed to support business operations and workers.

CURRENT, PRACTICAL INFORMATION

- Coordinates and shares state-of-the-art safety information and programs.
- Addresses hazards across diverse commodities, technologies, and worker populations.

A VOICE FOR NATIONAL STRATEGIES

- Supports effective strategies to reduce disease, injuries, and fatalities.
- Influences research priorities and promotes real-world best management practices.
